Sheppard Mullin Launches The CFIUS Book with WorldECR

12.03.2018

Successful investing in the United States is possible, but companies must prepare. Through The CFIUS Book, the Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton maps out the paths to and through the CFIUS process, starting from the decision to submit a notification to tips and traps along the path to the CFIUS safe harbor, including the most recent updates under the Foreign Investment Risk Review Modernization Act, or FIRRMA.

Published by WorldECR and edited by London office managing partner Reid Whitten, The CFIUS Book includes chapters from Sheppard Mullin's specialists in national security and NISPOM as well as telecommunications and the particular requirements for space-related investments, including partners Scott Maberry, Brian Weimer, Anne Perry, A. Joseph Jay III, Curt Dombek, and associates Fatema Merchant, Drew Svor, Lisa Mays, Heather Petrovich and Enumale Agada.
