

CLASS ACTIONS

Class action litigation can pose a tremendous financial threat to companies, whether large or small. Conner & Winters' experienced team can prepare a prompt response plan to protect your interests and guide you through the entire class action process. Our team has experience in all aspects of class action litigation including:

- Litigating class certification
- Conducting class and merits discovery
- Guiding clients through the court approval and notice process
- Negotiating complicated class action settlements.

Our team has successfully defended clients engaged in a wide range of industries including banking, food and beverage, healthcare, insurance, manufacturing, retailing, securities, and transportation. Our attorneys are well versed in class actions involving a myriad of legal issues including consumer laws, employment, environmental, products liability, securities, and wage and hour matters.
