

INCOME TAX

The attorneys practicing in the income tax section of Conner & Winters assist individuals, corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships and other entities in all areas of federal and state income taxation. Our firm offers planning services for clients who want to minimize potential income tax consequences by utilizing the latest planning techniques.

Conner & Winters attorneys provide interpretation, structuring and negotiation services for the firm's clients to maximize income tax benefits and to minimize income tax costs. We help clients to navigate and decide upon the use of various legal structures, including corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships and other specialized vehicles in order to save income tax on various transactions.

The firm advises clients regarding changes in the income tax laws. Firm attorneys negotiate proposed assessments with the Internal Revenue Service and represent clients throughout the appeals process and trial of tax matters in federal district court and the U.S. Tax Court. Similarly, the firm attorneys negotiate with state tax commissions and represent clients in administrative proceedings and judicial appeals.

The firm's practice includes representation of clients in diverse areas such as:

- Ad valorem appeals
- Bankruptcy taxation
- Basis issues
- Charitable and other tax-exempt organizations
