

OIL AND GAS AND ENERGY REGULATORY MATTERS

Oil and gas was one of Conner & Winters' original practices when the firm was founded in 1933, and our energy team continues this strong tradition of advising clients in this area today. The experience of our attorneys in regulatory matters is both deep and wide. Our capabilities in this area include:

- Oil and gas conservation matters before the Oklahoma Corporation Commission
- Purchases and sales of oil and gas properties
- Gathering issues
- Oil and gas marketing and transportation issues
- Production payments, as well as acquisition and project financing
- Pooling and unitization matters
- Operating agreements and gas balancing questions
- Landowner issues
- Public utilities matters
- Permitting and compliance
- Environmental issues
- Negotiations
- Federal Energy Regulatory Commission permitting and state regulatory permitting, ratemaking and compliance
- Comisión Reguladora de Energía (Mexico) permitting
- Local and federal permitting for wind projects
