Michael Albright is a litigation associate in the Tulsa office of Conner & Winters. He is involved in a variety of client matters related to energy, real estate, construction, banking & finance, and American Indian law. Michael handles cases through the entire litigation lifecycle, including conducting legal research, drafting and responding to complaints and motions, managing the discovery process, attending court hearings and case management conferences, and appeals.

Michael graduated with cum laude honors from Notre Dame Law School, where he worked on NCAA compliance and NIL issues as a legal extern for Notre Dame Athletics. As a law student, he received several accolades related to trial advocacy, and served as a managing notes editor for the Journal of Legislation. In the summer of 2024, Michael was a 2L summer associate at Conner & Winters.

Prior to law school, Michael earned both his bachelor's and master's degree in Accounting from Oklahoma State University, achieving summa cum laude honors for his undergraduate degree. While a student at OSU, Michael served as the 92nd Pistol Pete mascot, representing the university at hundreds of appearances around campus and across the state.
