

MICHAEL D. SUTTON SELECTED TO LEADERSHIP FAYETTEVILLE CLASS XXXIII

08.09.2019

Congratulations to Michael Sutton for being selected to Leadership Fayetteville Class XXXIII.

On August 8, 2019, the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce announced the 2019-20 participants of its leadership program, including associate attorney, Michael Sutton.

The ten-month program involves monthly meetings held from August to June, each of which is designed to develop motivated and educated individuals for future roles in leadership and volunteer opportunities. Local leaders serve as mentors and guest speakers, providing unparalleled insight into the community, including such areas as social services, health care, government, economic development, and education.

Michael Sutton is an associate attorney in the firm's Northwest Arkansas office. His practice focuses on commercial litigation and a wide array of healthcare matters.
