

BRONSON APPOINTED VICE CHAIR OF ABA ANTITRUST SECTION AGRICULTURE & FOOD COMMITTEE

06.27.2023

Tulsa, Okla. (June 27, 2023) - Vicki Bronson has been appointed to the role of Vice Chair of the American Bar Association Antitrust Section's Agriculture and Food Committee.

Bronson, a partner from the Northwest Arkansas office, practices complex commercial litigation and antitrust defense. She has extensive experience advising clients and handling state, regional, and national litigation.

As part of the ABA's Antitrust Section, the Agriculture and Food Committee focuses on antitrust and consumer protection matters that impact the agricultural and food sectors of the economy. The A&F Committee produces seminars, resources, and newsletters regarding issues that affect crops, food development, farming, livestock, food production and processing, groceries, and food labeling.

ATTORNEYS

Vicki Bronson

PRACTICES

Class Actions

Commercial Litigation

Environmental Litigation

Litigation