Our Northwest Arkansas attorneys practice in a variety of areas including a wide range of civil, commercial and complex litigation; banking; construction; health care and employment law; business organization and transaction law; corporate and securities matters; transportation and logistics; real estate and other practice areas.

The attorneys in our Northwest Arkansas office have more than 200 years of combined experience representing Arkansas clients and have guided clients through more than 600 trials to jury verdict. They are recognized and honored by their peers in organizations such as The Best Lawyers in America, Super Lawyers, Chambers USA, The American College of Trial Lawyers and the International Academy of Trial Lawyers.

We offer local experience and expertise along with the resources of our other offices to advise and serve clients on a wide range of legal issues.
