Attorney Nicholas T. Badalamenti recently joined the Insurance Coverage Practice Group of Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished full-service law firms.

Badalamenti focuses his practice on the defense of insurance coverage litigation and on providing his clients with coverage opinions and advice. In addition, Badalamenti has experience representing clients in first- and third-party auto liability cases and in general negligence claims involving premises and construction liability.

An associate in the firm's Bloomfield Hills office, Badalamenti graduated from Wayne State University Law School in 2022. While there, he was a member of the Wayne Law Moot Court and served as senior article editor of the Journal of Law in Society. In 2018, Badalamenti received his undergraduate degree from Princeton University where he was a member of the 2014 Ivy League Champion varsity soccer team.

Plunkett Cooney has long been recognized as having one of the nation's premier Insurance Coverage Practice Groups. The group's insurance consulting and litigation practice involves coverage disputes and regulatory proceedings in a range of matters, including, but not limited to, claims of bad faith, toxic torts, personal and advertising injury, construction liability, reformation and rescission, professional liability and first-party property coverage.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business law and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; and Indianapolis, Indiana.

Plunkett Cooney has achieved the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading, international directory of law firms. The firm has also received Mansfield Rule Certification Plus for midsize law firms, which recognizes leaders in diversity, equity and inclusion within the legal industry.
