Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and largest law firms, continues the step by step expansion of its insurance coverage practice with the addition of attorney Drew L. Block.

A senior attorney in Plunkett Cooney's Bloomfield Hills office, Block focuses his practice primarily in the area of insurance coverage, representing property and casualty insurance companies in coverage disputes involving bad faith claims, intellectual property, first-party property loss, construction accidents and sexual abuse and molestation claims. He also has experience handling litigation involving commercial and contract disputes, premises and product liability claims and medical malpractice claims.

Block is admitted to practice in state and federal courts in Michigan and Illinois and the state courts in Ohio. He is a member of the state bars of Michigan, Ohio and Illinois as well as the DRI – The Voice of the Defense Bar.

Plunkett Cooney is recognized as one of the nation's leading law firms for insurance coverage litigation. Members of the firm's Insurance Law Practice Group have been awarded the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation. In addition to their litigation expertise, Plunkett Cooney attorneys work with their clients to develop new insurance products and to address emergent theories of legal liability.

Members of the firm's insurance coverage practice are fully licensed in the states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin. They are also admitted pro hac vice in numerous other states.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs approximately 150 attorneys in eight Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois, Columbus, Ohio and Indianapolis, Indiana. Plunkett Cooney has achieved the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading, international directory of law firms. The firm was also recently selected by Crain's Detroit Business as its inaugural Law Firm of the Year.
