Attorney Peter J. Florian recently joined the Torts & Litigation Practice Group of Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished law firms.

Focusing his practice on general litigation defense, Florian represents a broad range of clients, including policyholders from some of the world's leading insurance companies, in claims involving premises liability, general negligence such as slip-and-fall incidents, and first- and third-party motor vehicle negligence cases involving personal injury and comparative negligence issues.

In addition to his litigation work, Florian has experience handling mortgage workouts and foreclosures, title disputes and homeowner association contract matters.

A member of the firm's Bloomfield Hills office, Florian earned his law degree, cum laude, from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law in 2025. While in law school, he was a member of the Business Law Society and served as a junior member of the Moot Court Board. He received numerous academic accolades, including awards in basic federal income tax and secured transactions. Florian received his undergraduate degree from Michigan State University in 2019.

The members of Plunkett Cooney's Torts and Litigation Practice Group focus on the defense of all manner of civil litigation, including construction disputes, motor vehicle negligence, liquor liability, product liability, toxic torts and premises liability, including slip, trip and falls. The firm's clients include the policyholders of some of the world's largest insurance providers and other businesses that become the targets of litigation.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business law and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; and Indianapolis, Indiana.

Plunkett Cooney has received the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading peer review service, as well as recognition by Best Lawyers as one of the nation's leading law firms. The firm has also received Mansfield Rule Certification Plus 2024-2025 for midsize law firms, which recognizes
