Attorney Elena Djordjeski recently joined Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished law firms, as a member of its Torts & Litigation and Transportation Law practice groups.

A member of the firm's Bloomfield Hills office, Djordjeski maintains a diverse litigation defense practice that includes claims involving motor vehicle liability, premises liability, general negligence, breach of contract and municipal liability.

With nearly a decade of experience as a trial attorney, Djordjeski represents individuals, businesses, insurance carriers and municipalities in cases involving slip, trip and fall claims, first- and third-party No-Fault benefits, uninsured and underinsured motorist claims, commercial trucking and third-party transportation liability, special investigations fraud, dramshop/liquor liability issues and disputes involving contracts, construction defects, negligence and other civil claims.

Selected as a Rising Star by Super Lawyers magazine since 2022, Djordjeski is a member of the Detroit and Oakland County bar associations, as well as the State Bar of Michigan. She is also a member of the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan.

Admitted to practice in state and federal courts in Michigan, Djordjeski received her law degree, magna cum laude, from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School in 2015. While in law school, she received numerous academic awards and competed as a member of the school's National Moot Court Team and National Mock Trial Team. Djordjeski earned her undergraduate degree from Michigan State University in 2012.

Plunkett Cooney's Torts & Litigation Practice Group features the collective talents of attorneys who focus their practices on the defense of all manner of civil litigation, including claims involving foodservice and hospitality, motor vehicle negligence, liquor liability, product liability, retail liability, toxic torts, and premises liability, including slip, trip and falls resulting in serious injury or even death.
