Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished law firms, recently added attorney Alexander Wilson to its Transportation Law Practice Group.

A member of the firm's Bloomfield Hills office, Wilson focuses his practice in the areas of motor vehicle negligence and No-Fault Law litigation defense.

Wilson routinely represents national insurers in first- and third-party motor vehicle negligence matters and uninsured and underinsured motorist claims. His experience includes strategic planning with his insurer clients to resolve anticipated liability claims and providing legal opinions regarding coverage and priority disputes.

In addition, Wilson has experience in business law, representing clients in contract law and negotiations, as well as assisting content creators across social media platforms in negotiations of brand deals to ensure strategic growth in the ever-evolving digital space.

Wilson is a 2021 graduate of New England Law in Boston. He received his undergraduate degree from Grand Valley State University in 2017. While there, he was a member of the GVSU Law Society.

Plunkett Cooney's Transportation Law Practice Group includes attorneys in the firm's four-state footprint who provide an array of litigation and risk management services, including expertise in the areas of first- and third-party auto liability, cross-border claims with Canada, trucking liability, fraud investigations and emergency accident response.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business law and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; and Indianapolis, Indiana.

Plunkett Cooney has received the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading peer review service, as well as recognition by Best Lawyers as one of the nation's leading law firms. The firm has also received Mansfield Rule Certification Plus 2024-2025 for midsize law firms, which recognizes leaders in diversity, equity and inclusion within the legal industry.
