Senior attorney L. Jeffrey Zauberger recently joined the Business Transactions & Planning Practice Group of Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished law firms.

A business attorney for nearly 40 years, Zauberger focuses his practice on the representation of borrowers and lenders in matters involving revolving lines of credit, term debt, real estate secured loans, and senior, mezzanine and acquisition financing. He also advises clients in connection with multifamily projects, hotels, shopping centers and self-storage facilities in Michigan and other states.

In addition, Zauberger has extensive experience in all aspects of real estate law, including development, acquisitions, sales, leasing, sale-leaseback transactions, letter of credit transactions and workouts.

Zauberger received his law degree from the University of Detroit School of Law in 1986. He completed the Bar Admission Course at the Law Society of Upper Canada in 1983 and 1984. In 1982, Zauberger received his Bachelor of Law degree from the Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto.

The members of Plunkett Cooney's Business Transactions & Planning Practice Group represent a variety of clients with issues arising during each phase of the business lifecycle, including start up, growth, change in strategic goals, change in control and wind downs. Practice Group members also provide counsel and representation in such areas as securities law, corporate law, labor and employment law, commercial law, tax matters, succession planning, and regulatory and legislative issues.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business law and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; and Indianapolis, Indiana.

Plunkett Cooney has achieved the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading, international directory of law firms. The firm has also received Mansfield Rule Certification Plus for midsize law firms, which recognizes leaders in diversity, equity and inclusion within the legal industry.
