

Plunkett Cooney's 10 Most Read Legal Updates of 2024

December 26, 2024

Sandra J. Densham
(616) 752-4627
sdensham@plunkettcooney.com

Bryan A. Janes
(616) 752-4613
bjanes@plunkettcooney.com

Alyssa C. Kennedy
(231) 348-6427
akennedy@plunkettcooney.com

Joseph A. Peterson
(248) 433-7158
jpeterson@plunkettcooney.com

This past year has been a whirlwind of activity within the legal community, whether as a result of head scratching decisions by the U.S. Supreme Court or in reaction to a wave of nuclear verdicts issued by juries across the country.

Plunkett Cooney's attorneys have done their best to stay on top of the legal issues of interest to our clients and content readers. The firm's blogs have been serving up a steady stream of fresh content to our followers, and they have blasted numerous Rapid Reports to our clients throughout 2024. Below is a roundup in rank order of the Top 10 Most Read updates by visitors to the firm's website, www.plunkettcooney.com.

1. Tax Considerations When Settling an Employment Claim 2.0
2. What can Homeowners do When Property Taxes are too High? (Part 2 of a 2-Part Series)
3. Michigan Supreme Court Decision Reinstates Previous Versions of Wage Laws
4. Navigating the Different Types of Liquor Licenses in Michigan

5. From Application to Approval – The Process for Obtaining a Michigan Liquor License
6. Understanding the Michigan Property Tax Appeals Process for Commercial, Industrial Properties
7. Appellate Court Rules Insured Entitled to Unlimited Attendant Care Benefits
8. Fee Schedule Applies to Third-Party Claims for Excess Allowable Expenses
9. New Scope of Ohio Home Construction Suppliers Services Act Takes Effect
10. The Skeptical Brain Injury – How Do You Prepare to Defend it?