David D'Amour is a partner in the Finance and Bankruptcy Practice Group in the firm's Orange County and New York offices. He is also Co-Leader of the Real Estate Finance Team.

Areas of Practice

David's practice focuses on representing clients in connection with a broad range of debt financing transactions. He advises debt funds, insurance companies, private equity firms and banks in a wide variety of credit transactions, including mortgage and mezzanine financings, acquisition financing, asset-based revolvers and portfolio loans across all major asset classes. In addition to his experience structuring and documenting finance transactions, David has extensive experience representing clients in the workouts of loan facilities and bankruptcy issues.
