Lauryn Vigil is an associate in the Business Trial Practice Group in the firm's Dallas office.

Areas of Practice

Lauryn represents clients in complex litigation and general commercial matters in federal court, state court, and arbitration proceedings. She helps resolve a wide range of matters, including those involving fraud, breach of contract, antitrust violations, and unfair competition. She is involved in all phases of dispute resolution, including pre-litigation counseling, pleadings, discovery, dispositive motions, and through trial and appeal.

During law school, Lauryn served as Articles Editor of the Texas Tech Law Review and was an active member of the Executive Board of the Organization of Women Law Students. She also participated in the Family Law Clinic as a Qualified Law Student, gaining valuable hands-on experience in client advocacy and case management.
