Mike Driscoll is a partner in the Finance and Bankruptcy Practice Group in the firm's New York office.

Areas of Practice

Mike focuses on problem loan workouts, bankruptcy, judicial and non-judicial foreclosure, and creditors' rights and commercial law. He maintains an active pro bono practice, including representing non-for-profit organizations and individuals in immigration proceedings.

Before joining Sheppard Mullin, Mike served as a Trial Attorney in the United States Department of Justice's Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York. During his tenure, he represented the United States Trustee's office in over 150 Chapter 11 cases by ensuring compliance with applicable laws, rules, and regulations during all phases of bankruptcy cases. Mike joined the Department of Justice directly from law school through the Attorney General's Honors Program.

Prior to law school, Mike was an active duty and reserve officer in the U.S. Marine Corps. He served two tours in Iraq and has been awarded two Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals and a Combat Action Ribbon. He was honorably discharged from the Marine Corps as a Major.
