

→ Robert S. Beall

Retired - Of Counsel

rbeall@sheppardmullin.com

Robert Beall is retired from the firm and is now Of Counsel. As a Co-Managing Partner of the firm for 18 years, Robert oversaw the strategic growth of practices, industry and client teams, and offices and served in an advisory role to firm management. The special projects under Robert's purview included innovation initiatives such as GenAI, industry and client team initiatives, and legal project management. He additionally served on the firm's Executive Committee.

Areas of Practice

Before Robert's transition to management roles at the firm, he specialized in complex civil litigation and intellectual property disputes, with an emphasis in unfair competition, securities, trade secret, patent and professional liability litigation. He represented many major financial institutions and mortgage industry clients.

Articles

- Can AI Help Law Firms Solve the Boom-Bust Hiring Cycle?
ALM, 08.07.2023

Media Mentions

3 Factors Firms Must Consider Before Building Gen AI Apps
Law360, 01.17.2024

The Concerns Legal Tech Leaders Have Going Into 2024
Law360, 01.02.2024

Law Firms Race to Counsel Clients on AI—and Harness Those Learnings Internally
ALM, 08.30.2023

Sheppard Mullin Launches 110-Member Global AI Team
Law360, 08.23.2023

Education

J.D., University of Southern California, 1987

B.A., University of California, Los Angeles, 1984

Harvard Business School Leadership Training Program

“AI Applications for Growth” Certificate, Kellogg Executive Education, Northwestern University