Taylor Mangan is an associate in the Business Trial Practice Group in the firm's Century City office.

Areas of Practice

Taylor's practice focuses on trusts and estates litigation within the firm's Private Wealth and Fiduciary Litigation Group. She litigates trust and will contests, breach of fiduciary duty cases, elder abuse cases, conservatorships, guardianships, and accounting disputes. Taylor is part of an internationally recognized team representing clients in some of the most high-profile, celebrity, and complex trust and estate disputes.

Taylor is active in the legal community. Taylor is a member of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers, California Lawyers Association Trusts and Estate Section, LGBTQ+ Lawyers Association of Los Angeles, National LGBTQ+ Bar Association, and UCLA Law Women Lead. In 2021, she served as a graduate volunteer prosecutor with the Los Angeles County Bar Association Trial Advocacy Project, which provided valuable jury trial experience. Her achievements have led to her recognition as a Rising Star by Super Lawyers and as one of the "Ones to Watch" by U.S. News & World Report Best Lawyers in America.

Before practicing law, Taylor Mangan graduated from the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA) School of Law in 2019 as President of the Moot Court Honors Society and with an Order of Barristers designation for outstanding oral advocacy. She additionally served as a judicial law extern on the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.
