

Trade Secret Litigation and Protection: A Practice Guide to the DTSA and the CUTSA

California Lawyers Association
04.2022

The passage of the Defend Trade Secrets Act in 2016 brought renewed attention to trade secrets as an important form of intellectual property protection. In recent years, we have seen more trade secret lawsuits brought in federal courts, state courts, and arbitration forums.

Trade Secret Litigation & Protection is a 26-chapter treatise that explains the fundamentals and intricacies of trade secret law under the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act (DTSA) and the California Uniform Trade Secret Act (CUTSA). This practice guide is a valuable resource for those litigating or counseling on trade secret issues.

Sheppard Mullin Trade Secrets Team leader Rebecca Edelson, along with Jones Day partner Randall E. Kay, and Seyfarth Shaw partner Robert B. Milligan are co-editors of the treatise.

In addition, a number of other Sheppard Mullin attorneys contributed to the book, including Travis Anderson, Adam Bartolanzo, Jenna Crawford, James Fazio, Brad Graveline, Steve Hollman, Rebecca Mackin, Kazim Naqvi, Joe Peacock, Kent Raygor, Tenaya Rodewald, Mikela Sutrina and Keith Szeliga.

The treatise is available now via Amazon, Barnes & Noble and Kobo.
