

Brussels Summer School on EU Competition Law

09.07.2018

Location:

Brussels, Belgium

About:

The Summer School on EU Competition Law is designed for lawyers, economists, public affairs consultants and civil servants who wish to acquire and consolidate an in-depth knowledge of EU competition law. It will provide the participants with a general overview of competition law as it is currently applied provided by experienced practitioners. Each day will be dedicated to a specific area of EU competition law. It will start with an overview of the subject and its latest developments. The afternoon sessions will build upon the morning classes and address more specific issues. An evening keynote speech will close the day.

Jacques Derenne will speak on the "State Aid Control" panel, which will include a general introduction, origins, sources, notion of aid (general), administrative procedure and role of national courts.
