

A Labor Update from Inside the Beltway: What All Union and Non-Union Employers Need To Know About Recent NLRB Developments

Labor Update Webinar

Via GlobalMeet

07.31.2019

Many employers had high hopes for a flurry of business-friendly decisions to be issued by the Republican-led National Labor Relations Board—but has the Trump-era Board met employers' expectations? Please join Sheppard Mullin for a webinar discussing notable NLRB developments and their impact on the workplace for both union and non-union employers.

This complimentary 1-hour webinar will be held through GlobalMeet on Wednesday, July 31, 2019. It will have both an audio and PowerPoint component.

We will cover:

- The NLRB's new independent contractor test;
- How the NLRB has narrowed the scope of what constitutes protected concerted activity;
- The NLRB's rulemaking agenda;
- Tips for employee handbooks post-Boeing; and
- Other noteworthy developments, including the Protecting the Right to Organize Act ("PRO Act") and the NLRB's recent decision involving union organizing access to privately owned public spaces.
