Sheppard Mullin's Women in Healthcare Leadership Collaborative ("WHLC") is a collaborative of women attorneys, compliance officers, business leaders, and other professionals in healthcare who have the talent and drive to advance their careers in a dynamic and heavily regulated industry. WHLC is committed to contributing to this advancement by providing its members with professional skills training and development, quality networking with other leaders in healthcare, and peer-to-peer mentoring. We will also host a series of conversations to provide targeted education to WHLC members on critical issues facing the healthcare industry today. WHLC aims to advance its members into leadership and C-suite positions and provide continued support throughout their careers.

Membership is by invite only.
