

Navigating COVID-19 Labor and Employment Challenges in the Workplace

Webinar
03.19.2020

You are invited to a private one hour webinar for senior leaders and investors that will address pressing employment concerns and strategies in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. The webinar, hosted by Sheppard Mullin partners Gregg Fisch and Jack Kiley of the firm's Labor and Employment practice group, will address a wide range of topics, including work-from-home arrangements, wage and hour issues, leaves of absence, furloughs and layoffs, WARN Act applicability, and pending legislation. Attendees will have the opportunity to submit questions during the webinar, time permitting. Aytan Dahukey, the head of the firm's Private Equity team will also participate to answer any general corporate / M&A questions you may have.
