

Critical Antitrust Issues for Healthcare Companies During the COVID-19 Pandemic

Webinar
04.14.2020

Healthcare companies face many challenges to their operations and business models as they provide outstanding care and other vital services during the current COVID-19 public health emergency. Sheppard Mullin's healthcare antitrust specialists will guide healthcare executives and their counsel through a practical discussion of the most critical antitrust issues facing the industry at this time. Faculty will provide concrete and real-life examples of problems facing healthcare industry clients to help you avoid antitrust pitfalls and stay on top of policy and enforcement changes spurred by the national emergency.

- What Competitors Can and Cannot Do Together During the COVID-19 Pandemic
- How Expedited FTC and DOJ Procedures for Joint Conduct Addressing the Public Health Crisis May Impact Your Project
- What Proposed Legislation May Impact Civil and Criminal Enforcement of the Antitrust Laws
- What Robinson-Patman Act Considerations You Should Keep in Mind When Distributing/Sharing Equipment and Pharmaceuticals
- How the Antitrust Laws Apply to Affiliations with Financially Distressed Companies
