

Restaurant Legal Summit - Wage-Hour Developments in California and Illinois

October 26 - 28, 2022

Connect with senior representatives from some of the restaurant industry's most successful brands! Join us October 26-28, 2022, in Atlanta for our 6th Annual Restaurant Legal Summit and get an all-access pass to one of the industry's most engaging events. In addition to hearing legal experts from some of our nation's top law firms address important legal issues facing our industry today, conference attendees will get the opportunity to discuss the work and future emphasis of the Restaurant Law Center, earn continuing education credits (CLE, SHRM and HRCI), and celebrate our industry's legal and regulatory successes at networking events.

Agenda

11:15 AM - Wage-Hour Developments In California And Illinois

Nora Stilestein and Shawn Fabian will provide an overview of key developments in California and Illinois wage and hour laws and provide an overview of "best practices" in response to the most recent state law changes.

The presentation will focus on issues specific to the restaurant industry, including sick pay, meal and rest periods, payment of wages, and updating written policies.

Speakers:

- Nora Stilestein, Partner, Sheppard Mullin LLP
