While the future of work has long been a topic of discussion, the reality has come about much faster than anyone expected. In the workplaces of today, employers are dealing with myriad legal and HR issues surrounding remote work arrangements, competition and asset protection, organization culture, team collaboration, and disruptive technologies, among others. Our experienced attorneys will discuss these issues, recent legal developments, and best practices for employers navigating a transforming workplace.

- National Employment Law Update - Federal Court Decisions and Key Local Developments
- ChatGPT, Bard and Bing - How Artificial Intelligence Will Reshape the Modern Workplace
- The Future of Non-Competes - The FTC's Proposed Rule Banning Non-Competition Provisions and State Law Updates
- Post-Pandemic Workplace Trends - Quiet Quitting, Flexible Work Fatigue and Independent Contractor Hiring
