California Employment Law Update: On The Cutting Edge

About the Event: Staying on top of California's notoriously complex (and constantly evolving) workplace legislation doesn't have to be difficult. The California Employment Law Update, presented by PIHRA, provides an efficient way for you to gain the knowledge you need to effectively mitigate risk. Join other HR professionals and legal practitioners at one of the in-person events held shortly after the legislative session, or via livestream, and find out how the latest regulatory shifts will impact your organization — while connecting with your community.

Speaker: Greg Labate, Partner, Sheppard Mullin
