Join us for an in-depth webinar focused on class actions and mass actions across the U.S., UK, and EU. The webinar will provide an introduction and context to these mechanisms, followed by an overview of collective redress and class action procedures. Our panelists will then delve into the intricacies of cross-border issues, procedural challenges, and other key considerations arising out of class action disputes. The session will conclude with a Q&A segment, providing an opportunity to interact and delve deeper into these complex matters. This informative session promises to offer valuable insights and perspectives on a critical area of law.
