Decarbonization and International ADR: Essential Tools in the Next Decade's Energy-Transition Disputes (CLE)

Grand Hyatt, Washington, D.C.

05.10.2024

Event Sponsor: American Bar Association

This panel discussion focuses on (i) identifying principal classes of disputes that are likely to proliferate in the next ten years in connection with international efforts at decarbonization, (ii) exploring the latest business and political issues that must be addressed for fruitful mediation of those disputes and (iii) exploring substantive doctrinal issues likely to inform the arbitrated resolution of controversies that cannot be settled. The panel will consider these issues in the context of commercial litigation and arbitration, investor-state claims, and international trade.

Moderator:

- Marcus Quintanilla, Arbitrator, Mediator, Counsel, Global Dispute Resolution

Speakers:

- Neil A.F. Popovic, Partner, Sheppard Mullin
