

Aerospace & Defense Technology Leaders Panel

06.05.2024 | 5:30-8:30 PM

Event Sponsor: Association for Corporate Growth

ACG 101 will host its annual Aerospace & Defense (A&D) Summit on Wednesday, June 5th, 2024.

Defense contractors and defense focused PE and VC backed companies continue to pursue investments and acquisitions in unmanned and autonomous systems, AI/MBL, sensing, connectivity, cybersecurity, quantum computing, space technologies, advanced materials and additive manufacturing. Top A&D leaders in our region will update us on how their businesses are leveraging these and other emerging technologies.
