About Jackie Sotelo and Orixe Sotelo Winery

Orixe Sotelo winery was founded in Sonoma, California, in 2019 by husband-and-wife team Jackie and Gustavo Sotelo. By day, Jackie navigates the real estate development world as the Director of Brand & Communications for Bishop Ranch in San Ramon, while Gustavo serves as the Director of Winemaking for Scribe Winery in Sonoma. In their spare time, they collaborate on their passion project, Orixe Sotelo.

Orixe (o-REE-shay) is inspired by the Galician word from Latin “origo,” meaning “beginning, source, birth, origin.” Their family name, Sotelo, originates from the coastal mountains of Galicia, Spain, motivating them to work exclusively with grape varieties native to Spain yet grown here in California. Through the lens of their Orixe Sotelo wine brand, Jackie and Gustavo aspire to expand upon California’s wine culture—a state poised for a renaissance of these Spanish cultivars and wine expressions.
