Securities Enforcement Forum New York is a unique, one-day conference that brings together current and former senior SEC officials, securities enforcement and white-collar attorneys, in-house counsel and compliance executives, and other top professionals in the field. 13 years in the making, this will be the first-ever Securities Enforcement Forum held in New York (this event has been held annually in Washington, D.C., San Francisco and/or Chicago since 2012).

Securities Enforcement Forum New York will be held on Tuesday, January 28, 2025 at the extraordinary JW Marriott Essex House New York. It will also be available for attendees to view live online.

The conference's stellar faculty – including seven SEC enforcement officials from the New York office, six former SEC Enforcement Directors, and a total of nearly 50 other luminaries in the securities enforcement field – will discuss the most pressing and critical topics in securities enforcement, including cryptocurrency, whistleblowers, financial and accounting fraud, the impact of artificial intelligence (AI), advanced litigation and investigation strategies, managing SEC-related criminal matters, financial firms, insider trading, climate, cybersecurity, and much more.

Partner Jeff Kern will be speaking on the panel "NYC Alphabet Soup: Defending Parallel Investigations Involving the SEC, SDNY, EDNY, NYAG and the List Goes On" on January 28 from 10:45-11:30 AM.
