Investing in Indian Country 101 and Tribal Gaming Update

Sheppard Mullin New York

03.20.2013

Learn fundamental principles and best practices when lending to or investing in Native American projects and contracting with tribes, including:

- drafting enforceable waivers of sovereign immunity,
- selecting choice of law and dispute resolution forum,
- identifying eligible collateral, enforcing remedies,
- determining whether a tribal entity is eligible for bankruptcy, and
- complying with special federal laws applicable to tribes.

Additionally, our experts will update you on recent developments affecting Native American gaming and non-gaming projects and be available for your questions.
