

The ACES Summit 2015

McLean, VA
04.2015

April 21-22, 2015

<http://theacesummit.com/>

Join Sheppard Mullin Partner J. Scott Maberry in McLean, VA for The ACES Summit - 3 events in 1 addressing key anti-corruption, export controls and sanction compliance challenges in an increasingly interconnected global regulatory landscape.

Exclusive to the The ACES Summit- Complete Access to Dual Tracks and a Master Class!

Track A: Anti- Corruption: Participate in the exchange of best practices and engage in a deep dive exploration of viable solutions and proven strategies for conquering the latest anti-corruption obstacles threatening your regional and global corporate operations

Track B: Export Controls: Specifically focused on addressing how newly-implemented and proposed reform under the ECR will impact international business, internal operations and compliance programs, the Export Control Reform. Gain a comprehensive discussions and practical exercises intentionally designed for professionals within international trade

Master Class on Global Sanctions: Attend a comprehensive update on new and emerging sanctions regulations in key high risk jurisdictions as you are immersed in a deep dive discussion of what your organization needs to know before engaging in trade

Confirmed speakers include compliance professionals from The Hershey Company, Prudential Financial, UTC, Northrop Grumman, GE Aviation, Harris Corporation, General Dynamics.

Learn what you want, when you want - customize your agenda and get a comprehensive understanding of the anti-corruption, exports and sanctions landscapes. Final program details will be available shortly. I look forward to seeing you this April at the The ACES Summit. Register as our guest using code SM15 to save 15% off the current rate.