

John Chierichella Named a "Leading Lawyer" by Editors of the Legal Times

11.11.2004

John Chierichella, Washington, D.C.-based Government Contracts partner, was named a "Leading Lawyer" by the editors of the Legal Times in the publication's November 1 issue. The D.C. area's top federal procurement attorneys were chosen by the publication's research, suggestions from their readership, interviews with dozens of experts - private practitioners, in-house counsel at government contractors, and academics - with the final decision made based upon the publication's reporting.
