

Robert Friedman Named Among India's International Top Lawyers

India Business Law Journal

04.01.2025

Robert Friedman, co-leader of Sheppard Mullin's Business Trial Practice Group and South Asia team, was named one of "India's International Top Lawyers" for 2025 by the India Business Law Journal (IBLJ). The list recognizes lawyers at international law firms that are the most-recommended for India-related matters based on nominations and extensive research conducted by the IBLJ editorial team.

Friedman represents South Asian companies doing business worldwide, as well as global companies doing business in South Asia and with South Asian companies. He and his team have represented global businesses in important, bet-the-company litigation matters and have significant personal and professional networks in South Asia. He has achieved successful outcomes in the major international arbitral forums and has led numerous internal investigations for global clients in a wide range of industries.

Attorneys

Robert S. Friedman

Practice Areas

International Reach

Litigation

South Asia