LMG Life Sciences recently released the 2025 edition of its guide, which identifies and ranks the leading law firms and individuals in the life sciences industry across the United States. The rankings are the result of firm participation in questionnaires, partner interviews to gather market feedback, client surveys and independent research. This year, eight Sheppard Mullin attorneys have been recognized in the guide, including:

- Martin Bruehs, Intellectual Property: Patent Prosecution
- Dominick DiSabatino, FDA: Pharmaceutical (Rising Star)
- Jeffrey Fessler, Corporate
- Alexandra Kitson, FDA: Pharmaceutical (Rising Star)
- Scott Liebman, FDA: Pharmaceutical and FDA: Medical Device
- Alex Nie, Intellectual Property: Patent Prosecution
- Lorna Tanner, Intellectual Property: Patent Strategy & Management
- Daniel Yannuzzi, Intellectual Property: Patent Prosecution; Patent Strategy & Management; and General Patent Litigation
