

Krysten Thomas Receives 2025 Outstanding Pro Bono Award

Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless
10.22.2025

Corporate attorney Krysten Thomas received the 2025 Outstanding Pro Bono Award from the Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless (WLCH) in recognition of her tireless efforts to secure permanent and affordable housing for a pro bono client and her family.

Thomas was honored with the Outstanding Pro Bono Award at a volunteer reception in D.C. on October 21, 2025. During the event, WLCH celebrated the contributions of Thomas and other individual volunteers, as well as its partnerships with firms like Sheppard Mullin. Through both volunteer and partner support, WLCH continues to provide low-income D.C. residents facing housing insecurity and homelessness with pro bono legal representation.
