For the fifth consecutive year, Adam Streisand was named to The Hollywood Reporter's list of "Troubleshooters." The annual list of 25 attorneys includes "a roundup of Hollywood's top courtroom gladiators, the ones to turn to when everything is on the line," according to the publication.

The Hollywood Reporter (THR) noted Streisand's recent victory in helping Lachlan Murdoch secure control of Fox and News Corp through a multi-billion dollar settlement. The publication also highlighted that this latest success is backed by decades of experience defending the legacies of billionaire families. Notably, Streisand defended Jeanie Buss in her fight to retain control of the LA Lakers, represented Dea Spanos Berberian in the LA Chargers' ownership feud, and handled succession disputes for The North Face co-founder Douglas Tompkins' estate.
