

Legal Aid Society of Orange County's "Access to Justice Award"

10.12.2017

Sheppard Mullin received the Legal Aid Society of Orange County's "Access to Justice Award" on October 12. The press release states "Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP has provided thousands of hours of pro bono service to a wide range of LASOC matters aimed at serving Orange County's homeless population and preventing vulnerable seniors, veterans, and children and their families from becoming homeless. Focusing on the City of Fullerton, the firm and its pro bono team partnered with LASOC to achieve measurable impact on increased emergency shelters and low income housing units."
