11.19.2021

For the third consecutive year, partner Gemma Descoteaux has been named to D CEO magazine’s annual list of the 500 most influential business leaders in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

According to D CEO, the Dallas 500 “provides a personal, engaging look at the leaders who make Dallas-Fort Worth’s economy tick.” Editors from D CEO magazine, which focuses on business and economic issues in the region, combined a year’s worth of interviews and extensive research “to present the most powerful top executives in more than 60 business categories. The Dallas 500 is the region’s and highly selective biographical database of the people who really run Dallas-Fort Worth business, based on extensive contacts in North Texas business circles, hundreds of interviews, and months of research.”

“Making the Dallas 500 is no easy feat in a market as large and vibrant as North Texas,” said D CEO editor Christine Perez. “Those featured in our 2022 edition are at the best of the best; they play an integral role in driving the local economy.”

The full list will appear in a special print edition of the trade publication as well as on its website in January. Honorees were celebrated at an exclusive reception held Nov. 18 at the Hall of State in Dallas’ Fair Park.
