

Sheppard Mullin Nominated for Deal of the Year by IFLR

International Finance Law Review
03.23.2022

Sheppard Mullin has been recognized for its role advising Air-France KLM on its €4 billion recapitalization in IFLR's Europe Awards 2022 shortlist for Equity Deal of the Year.

In 2021, a Sheppard Mullin team led by partner Jacques Derenne, counsel Dimitris Vallindas and associates Ciara Barbu-O'Connor and Julien Blanquart advised Air France-KLM, a leading global player in its principal businesses of passenger and cargo transportation, low-cost operations and aircraft maintenance, in securing approval for up to €4 billion in French State-backed aid to recapitalize Air France (Société Air France and its subsidiaries) and Air France-KLM holding company and its subsidiaries, with the exception of KLM and its subsidiaries.

IFLR is the market-leading financial law publication in Europe, the US and Asia, connecting the global financial community through interactive, debate style events and exclusive awards dinners recognizing today's leading individuals and firms in financial law.

Winners will be announced on May 9.
