

Real Estate Team Represented Algin Management in Sale of Tysons Area Land Parcels to Asbury Automotive Group

03.01.2024

Sheppard Mullin advised Algin Management in the $67 million sale of the locations of two former Nissan and Infinity car dealerships to Asbury Automotive Group. The properties are in the Tysons area of Northern Virginia in an area slated for a mixed-use development formerly known as Dominion Square.

The Sheppard Mullin team that represented Algin Management was led by partner Scott Stern and special counsel Darby Brown.
