

Sheppard Mullin Launches Canada Desk

09.18.2024

Sheppard Mullin is pleased to announce the launch of its Canada Desk, an experienced team of lawyers dedicated to providing comprehensive cross-border legal services to Canadian clients across an array of industries.

Led by partners Nioura Ghazni and Andrew Bond and associates Nazia Khan, Ashton Wiebe and Snehal Desai, Sheppard Mullin's Canada Desk is comprised of attorneys who have extensive experience practicing in Canada or working with Canadian-based clients. The Canada Desk's collective expertise enables Sheppard Mullin to offer valuable insights into specific legal issues through close collaboration with Canadian-based law firms to deliver seamless, cross-border legal services to mutual clients.

The Canada Desk has experience advising clients who do business in Canada with corporate transactions, tax, executive compensation and employee benefits, litigation, privacy and cybersecurity, international trade, tariffs and customs regulations, immigration and intellectual property.
