

Sheppard Mullin Strengthens Finance Practice with Addition of Stacey Rosenberg

01.05.2021

Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP is pleased to announce that Stacey L. Rosenberg has joined the firm's Los Angeles office as a partner in the Finance & Bankruptcy practice group. Rosenberg was most recently a partner at Hogan Lovells. She is the 15th partner to join Sheppard Mullin in the last year.

"Our finance practice is as busy as it's ever been," said Sheppard Mullin vice chairman Jon Newby. "Our broad capabilities across all areas of finance, including loan origination, workout and insolvency, have been of significant value to our clients during these unprecedented times. Having a seasoned finance partner like Stacey join us is great for us and great for our clients."

Commenting on the addition of Rosenberg, Brent Horstman, Finance & Bankruptcy practice group leader, said, "Stacey is an outstanding addition to our group. Her extensive debt finance work and her in-depth experience in the entertainment industry are ideal fits for us. Her practice also concentrates on alternative lenders, an area of increasing strength for our Finance & Bankruptcy group."

A highly experienced debt finance lawyer, Rosenberg represents lenders, borrowers, and equity sponsors in a broad variety of loan transactions. She advises direct lenders in the middle market in connection with term loans and second lien facilities across a wide range of industries. She also counsels clients in transactions ranging from ordinary course corporate credits to bet-the-company deals and lifeline loans. She received her B.S. from the University of California Berkeley and her J.D. from the University of California Los Angeles School of Law.
