

Sheppard Mullin Advises Arlington Capital Partners in Acquisition of TRP Infrastructure Services

07.13.2021

Sheppard Mullin represented Washington, D.C.-based private equity firm Arlington Capital Partners in its acquisition of TRP Infrastructure Services, a leading provider of safety-critical and highly regulated roadway marking and traffic control solutions primarily to state and local government end-customers, whom it serves either directly or through general contractors.

The Sheppard Mullin deal team was led by partners Luca Salvi and Frank Bacelli, special counsel Cedric Powell and associates Wes Fischer and Felicia Xu. Financing for the acquisition was led by partner Jim Ritter and associates Mike Baranovic and Jarred Ramo. Special assistance was provided by David Chidlaw, Keith Gercken, Claudia Hinsch, Scott Roybal, Olivier Theard, Carlo Van den Bosch, Lidore DeRose, Robert Gorzelany, Sean Kirby, Malika Levarlet, Robert Magielnicki, John Crisp, Hector Grajeda, Betsy Luxenberg, Imad Matini, Matthew McCalip, Diandra Molina, Elfin Noce, Patrick Quine, Charles Spencer-Davis, Lauren Weiss, Hannah Wigger, Shinduk Seo, and Aaron Hill.

Click here to read the press release.

Attorneys

Frank A. Bacelli

Michael J. Baranovic

David B. Chidlaw

John G. Crisp

James Wesley "Wes" Fischer

Keith R. Gercken

Robert Gorzelany

Claudia L. Hinsch

Sean J. Kirby

Malika Levarlet

Betsy Luxenberg

Robert L. Magielnicki

Imad S. Matini

Matthew A. McCalip

Elfin L. Noce

Patrick C. Quine

James F. Ritter

Scott F. Roybal

Lucantonio N. Salvi

Shinduk Seo

Olivier F. Theard

Carlo F. Van den Bosch

Hannah J. Wigger

Practice Areas

Corporate

Mergers and Acquisitions

Private Equity