

Sheppard Mullin Advises Kane Communications in Partnership with Aterian Investment Partners

08.03.2021

Sheppard Mullin represented Trenton, New Jersey-based Kane Communications, a leading provider of structured cabling, among other related telecommunications and utility infrastructure services across the Tri-State region, in its strategic partnership with private investment firm, Aterian Investment Partners. In conjunction with the transaction, Aterian also announced the formation of a holding company that will continue to partner with other leading service companies across the nation in the high growth and very fragmented telecommunications and utility infrastructure market.

The Sheppard Mullin deal team was led by partner Shon Glusky, special counsel Amanda Ackerman and associate Matthew Greenberg. Special assistance was provided by partners Michael Chan, Keith Gercken, James Hays, Justin Hepworth, Claudia Hinsch, Alexis Robinson, Keith Szeliga, and Olivier Theard; special counsel Carol Archer, Sean Kirby and Malika Levarlet; associates Ehiguina Borha, John Crisp, Zachary Norris, Genevieve Perez, Nathaniel Schlakman, Allison Troianos, and Michael Weissnar; and attorney Erin Hausladen.
