

Sheppard Mullin's Gross Revenue Growth Continues

Rebecca Cohen

The Recorder

03.01.2017

The Recorder highlights Sheppard Mullin's 26th consecutive year of revenue growth, which rose 8.5 percent in 2016 to $607 million. In the article, Sheppard Mullin chairman Guy Halgren shared that litigation remained the firm's busiest practice area, stating "I think we present an outstanding value proposition. We are very adept at litigating cases economically."

Attorneys

Richard A. Friedman

Guy N. Halgren

Jonathan E. Meyer

Practice Areas

Corporate

Intellectual Property

Litigation

Industries

Energy, Infrastructure and Project Finance